

Is global tourism good for the world? page 78 - questions

- Do you think global tourism does more harm than good? Why?
- In your opinion, what is the biggest advantage of being able to travel anywhere in the world?
- How does tourism affect the local economy in your country or city?
- What are the pros and cons of a country relying heavily on tourism income?
- How can tourism help preserve local traditions and culture?
- Should there be a limit on the number of flights a person can take per year to protect the environment?
- What can hotels and travel agencies do to be more eco-friendly?
- Have you ever visited a place that was "ruined" by too many tourists? Where was it?
- Should famous cities like Venice or Barcelona charge an entry fee to tourists?
- What makes someone a "responsible traveler"?
- Would you be willing to pay more for a holiday if you knew the money went directly to the local community?