

Choose the correct verb to complete sentences a-h.

- a) I refused to pay the mechanic's bill in full because the work didn't come/go up to scratch.
- b) She'd always loved Tom Cruise, so meeting him at the film premiere was a dream come/gone true.
- c) As far as rooms come/go, it was OK, but it was nothing special.
- d) When it comes/goes to sailing, I know almost nothing.
- e) I can get by in French and Spanish, although languages don't come/go easily to me.
- f) My brother passed his driving test at the sixth attempt, which just comes/goes to show that you should never give up!
- g) We had a flat tyre just after we set off, and after that, the journey came/went from bad to worse.
- h) I tried to think of a clever reply, but nothing came/went to mind.