

When bad means good

1. Complete the gaps with the correct prepositions. You should use the same preposition in each pair of expressions.

- a) a sports activity you're bad
a household chore you're good doing
- b) a habit that is bad our health
a reason why competition is good business
- c) a decision you've made recently that you feel good a thing you feel bad not doing in the past
- d) a person you know who is good children
a person who is bad money
- e) a person who's always been good you a reason why some people are bad others

2. Choose one situation from each pair in ex. 1 and talk about it.

3. Read the sentences and answer the questions below.

- a) She's been waiting for a good half hour to finally be seated in her favourite restaurant.
- b) They're very negative and only see the bad in everything.
- c) Even small donations can do a lot of good.
- d) Man! Your new motorcycle is so bad!
- e) They've just lost their jobs, so they need money real bad¹.

- 1) In which sentence does bad mean good?
- 2) In which sentence is bad used as an adverb?
- 3) In which sentences are good and bad used as nouns?
- 4) In which sentence does bad mean very much?
- 5) In which sentence does good mean more than?

¹ Note that this is AmE and informal use of bad as an adverb

4. Discuss the questions.

- Would you ever wait a good half hour or more to be seated in a restaurant?
Why (not)?
- Do you think that our brains are wired to only see the bad in everything?
Why (not)?
- What does more good: donating money or volunteering?
- What is one thing you need real bad right now?

5. Read the dialogues and complete them with good or bad. Then, try to explain the meaning of the underlined phrases.

EXAMPLE: A: Would you like something else to drink?

B: No, I'm good. Thanks.

- a) A: Oh great, we won't see the concert. It's sold out!
B: My, I thought tickets would be available just before the concert.
- b) A: How's your new business?
B: So far so, but we have to wait a bit longer to see how it goes in the long run.
- c) A: I didn't get the job.
B: Oh, that's too Do you have any other interviews?
- d) A: Have you seen Kate dancing? Not, eh?
B: Yeah, she's great! She'll definitely win the competition!
- e) A: Honey, I bought a Ferrari!
B: You did what? Ha, ha, that's a one! I almost believed you!
- f) A: I can't come. I'm ill!
B: Oh, luck. I'm sure you can come next time!
- g) A: Do you have all your stuff?
B: Almost. Just give me a couple of minutes and I'll be to go.
- h) A: Guess what, mum? I got promoted!
B: Oh, sweetie, for you!
- i) A: I failed the test.
B: Too You should have studied more.