

UNIT 11 - 11.5 FCE Masterclass – FILL IN – Confusing verbs pg 134

Choose the correct word in each question.

1. Were you disappointed on your last holiday because you expected / waited that the hotel would have much better rooms?
2. When you were a child, did you always look forward / expect to spending your holiday at your grandparents' house?
3. If you had an appointment with your friend and he texted you he was an hour late, would you hope / wait for him?
4. Are you expecting / hoping an important letter from a bank at the moment?
5. When did you last use the phrase „I hope / look forward to hearing from you“ at the end of an email?
6. Have you ever waited / expected all day in front of a concert hall to see your favourite band?
7. Do you think a woman should change her diet when she's waiting / expecting a baby?
8. What is the longest time you expected / waited for a train that was delayed?
9. Do you hope / look forward to it doesn't rain at the weekend?
10. Do you always hope / expect the weather in the Czech Republic to be warm and sunny in July?
11. Have you ever hoped / waited that someone's operation will go well?
12. Are you hoping / expecting to see your old friends this weekend?