

Fill in the gaps with suitable modal verbs from the brackets.

- 1) he be Norwegian with a name like Gryzbowski? (must/ can)
- 2) Who done such a terrible thing? (could have/ should have)
- 3) you like a lift to the airport? (could/ would)
- 4) It's our 4th anniversary today. we go to a restaurant this evening, honey? (shall/ must)
- 5) Do you think I go and complain to the manager? (must/ should)
- 6) I borrow your calculator for a moment? (may/ shall)
- 7) you help me get dinner ready? (would/ should)
- 8) we open the window here? (shall/ will)
- 9) you accept the job if you were me? (could/ would)
- 10) I give you a hand with your luggage? (can/ would)
- 11) we rent a car here or do you sell them only? (will/ can)
- 12) it rain tomorrow, what do you think? (will/ shall)

Fill in the gaps with suitable modal verbs from the brackets.

- 1) he be Norwegian with a name like Gryzbowski? (must/ can)
- 2) Who done such a terrible thing? (could have/ should have)
- 3) you like a lift to the airport? (could/ would)
- 4) It's our 4th anniversary today. we go to a restaurant this evening, honey? (shall/ must)
- 5) Do you think I go and complain to the manager? (must/ should)
- 6) I borrow your calculator for a moment? (may/ shall)
- 7) you help me get dinner ready? (would/ should)
- 8) we open the window here? (shall/ will)
- 9) you accept the job if you were me? (could/ would)
- 10) I give you a hand with your luggage? (can/ would)
- 11) we rent a car here or do you sell them only? (will/ can)
- 12) it rain tomorrow, what do you think? (will/ shall)